

SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

"Originally built in 1885 as a beach cottage by Charles Ballough, the historic Plaza Resort & Spa officially opened its doors to the public in 1888. The resort's reputation as a chic winter playground for American and international travelers spread rapidly, and in 1925 it became the first resort hotel on the east coast of Florida to remain open throughout the year.

During World War II, the hotel closed down for the war effort, serving as a barracks for the Women's Army Corps (WACs) for two years. In June of 1944, it reopened under a new name.

Today "Daytona Beach's Grand Resort" stands as a charming reflection of "Old Florida" with all of the amenities of a modern resort. A beautiful marriage of the past and future, The Plaza Resort & Spa continues to endear guests from around the world with a few ghostly guests that linger to this day!"

The Outfit 12

Old Forester 86 Bourbon, cherry, simple syrup, aromatic bitters, orange slice.

During the prohibition era there was a mob run speakeasy on property and the outfit was the name of the operation. This was their favorite drink.

The Tall Blue Lady 10

RumHaven Coconut Rum, blue curaçao, pineapple juice, pineapple wedge, cherry.

In the Plaza Ballroom at night, a tall woman in a blue elegant dress has been seen roaming around looking for her next dance.

Saxophone Charlie 10

Jack Daniel's Tennessee Apple, Jack Daniel's Tennessee Fire.

Saxophone Charlie was a member of a jazz and blues band, when he is around you can hear the sweet faint sound of the sax. If you play the sax back to him, Charlie is known to shake the chandeliers.

The Del Mar Devil 11

Stoli Citros Vodka, watermelon liqueur, sour mix, sugar rimmed glass.

The Del Mar Devil is known as a playful spirit. Around the Playa Del Mar, the devil is known to play ball or give you a little pinch to let you know he's there.

The Tri"P" 12

Stoli Peachik Vodka, Stoli Crushed Pineapple Vodka, passion fruit juice, pineapple.

"P", also known as Penelope, is a young girl who spends her nights roaming The Colonnade. She is harmless, but be careful! She is known to stick her foot out to trip you.
